PART I

PRELIMINARY

- Short title 1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Broadcasting and Publications Authority Ordinance.
- Constitution of Authority 2. (1) There shall be an authority to be called the Broadcasting and Publications Authority (in this Ordinance referred to as "the Authority") which shall consist of a Chairman, and such other members, not being less than 5, as the Minister may from time to time determine.
- Schedule 1 (2) The provisions of Schedule 1 (which relate to the appointment and remuneration of members of the Authority and to the procedure of and other similar matters concerning the Authority) shall have effect with respect to the Authority.

PART II

BROADCASTING

3. (1) The function of the Authority relating to broadcasting shall be to provide in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance such local sound broadcasting services for Kiribati as may from time to time be reasonably practicable.

Function and duties of Authority relating to broadcasting

(2) It shall be the duty of the Authority—

(a) to provide local sound broadcasting services as a public service for disseminating information, education and entertainment; and

(b) to ensure that the programmes broadcast by the Authority maintain a high general standard in all respects, and in particular in respect of their content and quality, and a proper balance and wide range in their subject-matter, having regard both to the programmes as a whole and also to the days on which the programmes are broadcast.

(3) Without prejudice to the powers conferred on the Authority by this Ordinance, the programmes broadcast by the Authority may include advertisements.

(4) It is hereby declared that the Authority in the exercise of its functions under this Part is not to be treated for the purposes of the enactments and rules of law relating to the privileges of the Republic as a body exercising functions on behalf of the Republic.

4. (1) The Authority shall, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, have power to do all such things as are in its opinion necessary for or conducive to the proper discharge of its function as described in section 3 (1) and, in particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, it shall, for the purpose of discharging that function, have power to arrange for the provision and equipment of, or if need be, itself to provide and equip, studios and other premises for sound broadcasting purposes.

Powers of Authority

(2) Notwithstanding anything in this section, the Authority shall not carry on business as seller of, or, except with the approval of the Minister, itself engage in the manufacture or sale of apparatus for wireless telegraphy or any other telegraphic equipment.

(3) The Authority shall have exclusive rights in respect of the broadcasting of any matters.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as authorising the Authority to do anything for the doing of which a licence is requisite under any law for the time being in force.

General provisions with respect to content of programmes

5. (1) It shall be the duty of the Authority to satisfy itself that as far as possible the programmes broadcast by the Authority comply with the following requirements—

- (a) that nothing is included in the programmes which offends against good taste or decency or is likely to encourage or incite to crime or to lead to disorder or to be offensive to public feeling; and
- (b) that a sufficient amount of time in the programmes is given to news and news features and that all news given in the programmes (in whatever form) is presented with due accuracy and impartiality; and
- (c) that substantial proportions of the recorded and other matter in the programmes are of Kiribati origin and performed by I-Kiribati; and
- (d) that due impartiality and opportunity are preserved on the part of the persons providing the programmes as respects matters of political or industrial controversy or relating to current public policy.

(2) In applying subsection (1) (d), a series of programmes may be considered as a whole.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), it shall be the duty of the Authority to secure the exclusion from the programmes broadcast by it of all expressions of its own opinion as to any of the matters referred to in subsection (1) (d), or the opinion as to any such matters of any of its members or officers.

(4) For the purpose of maintaining supervision and control over the programmes (including advertisements) broadcast by it, the Authority may make sound records of those programmes or any part thereof, and the making and use by the Authority of any such record exclusively for that purpose shall not constitute an infringement of the copyright in any work or sound recording.

Audience research

6. The functions of the Authority shall include the making of arrangements for bringing the programmes (including advertisements) broadcast by the Authority and the other activities of the Authority under constant and effective review, and in particular for ascertaining the state of public opinion concerning the programmes (including advertisements) broadcast by the Authority and for encouraging the making of useful comments and suggestions by members of the public, and the arrangements shall include provision for full consideration by the Authority of the facts, comments and suggestions so obtained.

7. (1) The Authority shall avoid the inclusion in sound broadcasts of sounds suggestive of violence, particularly when large numbers of children and young persons may be expected to be listening to the programmes, and in considering what other matters ought to be observed shall have special regard to programmes broadcast when large numbers of children and young persons may be expected to be listening.

Code for programmes other than
advertisements

(2) The Authority shall, in the discharge of its general responsibility for programmes other than advertisements, impose requirements as to standards and practice for such programmes prohibiting or restricting items of a specified class or description or as respects a particular item.

8. A programme (other than an advertisement) broadcast by the Authority—

Programme

(a) shall not include anything which offers any prize of significant value (whether competed for or not) or any gift of significant value unless—

(i) the value of the prize or gift does not exceed an amount previously approved by the Authority for that prize or gift in relation to that programme; and

(ii) the aggregate value of all such prizes and gifts offered in the programme does not exceed an amount previously approved by the Authority for that programme; and

(b) shall not include anything which offers any prize or gift of significant value in connection with a game, competition or test of any kind unless the rules governing the conduct of the game, competition or test have been previously approved by the Authority.

9. (1) The programmes broadcast by the Authority may, so long as the provisions of this Ordinance are complied with in relation thereto, include advertisements inserted therein in consideration of payments to the Authority.

Advertisements

(2) Orders for the insertion of the said advertisements may be received either through agents or direct from the advertiser, but the Authority shall not act as an advertising agent.

(3) It shall be the duty of the Authority to secure that the relevant provisions of Schedule 2 are complied with in relation to the advertisements included in the programmes broadcast by the Authority.

(4) After consultation with the Authority the Minister may make rules amending, repealing or adding to the provisions of the said Schedule.

(5) Subject to subsections (7) and (8), nothing shall be included in any programme broadcast by the Authority, whether in an advertisement or not, which states, suggests or implies, or could reasonably be taken to state, suggest or imply, that any part of any programme broadcast by the Authority which is not an advertisement has been supplied or suggested by any advertiser, and, except as an advertisement, nothing shall be included in any programme broadcast by the Authority which could reasonably be supposed to have been included therein in return for payment or other valuable consideration to the Authority.

(6) Nothing in subsection (5) shall be construed as prohibiting the inclusion, in any part of a programme broadcast by the Authority which is not an advertisement, of any of the following matters—

- (a) items designed to give publicity to the needs or objects of any association or organisation conducted for charitable or benevolent purposes; and
- (b) reviews of literary, artistic or other publications or productions, including current entertainments; and
- (c) items consisting of factual portrayals of doings, happenings, places or things, being items which in the opinion of the Authority are proper for inclusion by reason of their intrinsic interest or instructiveness and do not comprise an undue element of advertisement; and
- (d) announcements of the place of any performance included in the programme, or of the name and description of the persons concerned as performers or otherwise in any such performance, announcements of the number and description of any record so included, and acknowledgements of any permission granted in respect of any such performance, persons or record; and
- (e) items inserted at the request, or under the authority, of the Minister; and
- (f) such other matters (if any) as are prescribed by the rules made under subsection (4), or as prohibiting the inclusion of an advertisement in any programme broadcast by the Authority by reason only of the fact that it is related in subject-matter to any part of that programme which is not an advertisement.

(7) So much of subsection (6) as prohibits the inclusion in programmes (other than advertisements) broadcast by the Authority of anything which could reasonably be supposed to have been included therein in return for payment or other valuable consideration to the Authority shall not apply to any programme so broadcast in an educational service provided under this Ordinance.

(8) Any rules made under subsection (4) shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the Maneaba ni Maungatabu at a meeting next following the date when any such rules are made, and subject to annulment shall have full force and effect from the date when the rules are made.

10. (1) The Minister may, if it appears to him to be necessary or expedient to do so in connection with his functions as such, at any time by notice in writing require the Authority to broadcast, at such times as may be specified in the notice, any announcement so specified, and it shall be the duty of the Authority to comply with the notice.

Government control over Authority as to certain matters

(2) Where the Authority broadcasts any announcement in pursuance of a notice under the preceding subsection it may, if it thinks fit, announce that it is doing so in pursuance of such a notice.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the Minister may at any time by notice in writing require the Authority to refrain from broadcasting any matter or classes of matter specified in the notice, and it shall be the duty of the Authority to comply with the notice.

(4) If under subsection (3) the Minister by notice in writing requires the Authority to refrain from broadcasting anything, the Authority may, if it thinks fit, broadcast an announcement of the notice or of the revocation or expiration of the notice.

Liabilities and obligations

BROADCASTING AND PUBLICATIONS AUTHORITY
(AMENDMENT) ACT, 1981.

Explanatory Memorandum.

This amending Act is designed to amend the principal Act for 2 quite separate purposes -

(1) Unlike the other statutory corporations and bodies, which are subject to the audit by the Director of Audit, the Broadcasting and Publications Authority has the right to appoint its own auditors, subject to the approval of the Minister. It is not clear why the Authority was put in this exceptional position and there seems no reason whatever why the Authority should not be brought into line with the other statutory bodies. Section 20 of the principal Ordinance is therefore amended by substituting references to the Director of Audit for the existing references to appointed auditors.

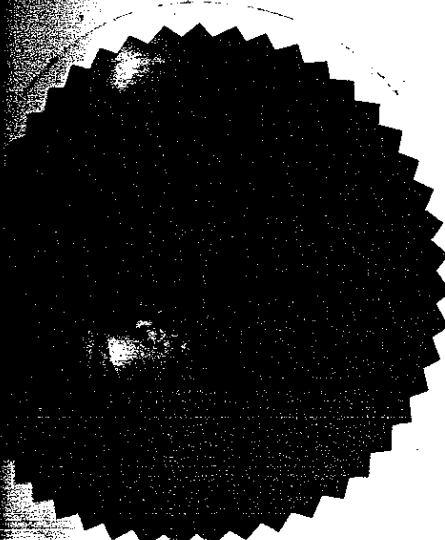

(2) Like most of the statutory bodies, the Authority enjoys freedom from import duties. Recently, however, the Authority imported items specifically for re-sale to the public rather than for its own use, namely Tee-shirts. There seems no reason why the Authority should not pay import duty on items which it intends to re-sell, to the public, and section 24 of the principal Ordinance is amended accordingly.

This Act amends the Broadcasting and Publication Authority Ordinance (Cap. 6A), (the "principal Ordinance") to establish more clearly the corporate status of the Authority and make it more consistent with other statutory corporations.

Clause 2 of the Act repeals Section 2 of the principal Ordinance and substitutes a new section 2 which establishes the Authority as a body corporate and sets out the powers of the Authority. Schedule 1 is given statutory effect and the Beretitenti, acting in accordance with the advice of the Cabinet is given power to amend the schedule.

Clause 3 of the Bill repeals section 21 of the principal Ordinance which becomes redundant in the light of the new section 2 of the Ordinance.

Clause 4 of the Bill makes consequential amendments to Schedule 1.
