23. (1) The TAK will be responsible for developing prescribed requirements for the Tourism Permit of tourism accommodation, tourism enterprises and restaurants.

(2) The TAK, may declare any premises, place or thing which, in the TAK opinion, affords an amenity, tourists facility, service or goods to tourists, to be –

- (a) a class of accommodation establishment; and
- (b) tour business;

that is required to have a Tourism Permit under this Act with effect from a date specified in the declaration.

(3) No person must conduct any business which falls within the class of accommodation establishment or the category of tour operator designated in the notice unless the person holds in respect of that business –

- (a) a Tourism Permit issued, or deemed to have been issued, under this Act; or
- (b) a certificate of a conditional Tourism Permit issued under this Act.

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (3) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to be sentenced to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 6 months or to both.

Application for Tourism Permit

24. (1) An application for a Tourism Permit of an accommodation establishment, tourist enterprise, tourist facility and restaurant must –

- (a) be submitted in writing to the CEO in an approved form;
- (b) be accompanied by the plans, documents and other information or particulars as may be prescribed; and
- (c) be accompanied by the prescribed registration application fee which is not refundable.

(2) The Board must call for an inspection to be carried out and a report to be prepared by a tourism industry assessment officer on whether the prescribed requirements – as established by the Board for registration are complied with in respect of the business to which the application relates.

(3) The Board, when considering an application may -

- (a) by notice in writing given to the applicant, require the applicant to give the Board further information or documents relevant to the application within a stated reasonable period of at least 14 days; and
- (b) cause any investigation to be carried out in regard to any matter relevant for deciding the application, including investigation by a person appointed by the Board to advise the Board on any matter in relation to which that person has special knowledge or skill.

Conditional Tourism Permit

25. (1) If, upon consideration of an application for registration of an accommodation establishment, tourist enterprise, tourist facility and restaurant the Board is of the opinion that although the prescribed minimum requirements for registration are not fully complied with, such non-compliance is of a nature which will not substantially affect the standard of the service proposed to be provided, the Board may grant a conditional Tourism Permit in respect of the business concerned for a period, not exceeding 6 months, as the Board may determine to allow the applicant to conduct the business during completion of the work in compliance with those requirements.

(2) Upon application made to the Board, at least 60 days before expiry of the period for which a conditional registration has been granted, the Board may –

- (a) if it is satisfied that the applicant has shown good cause, grant an extension of the conditional registration for a further period, not exceeding 6 months, as the Board may determine; or
- (b) refuse to grant an extension of the conditional Tourism Permit.

(3) If the Board grants a conditional Tourism Permit, or extension of a conditional Tourism Permit, it must, upon payment of the prescribed fee, issue to the applicant a conditional Tourism Permit certificate to conduct business.

(4) The Board may at any time, by written notice, revoke or suspend a conditional Tourism Permit if the Board, in the interest of tourists, considers that the facilities offered or equipment used by the accommodation establishment or tourist enterprise adversely affects the quality of service provided to tourists or is seen to affect the safety of the tourists or if the business continually fails to provide requirements in a timely manner to the Kiribati Tourism Marketing and Development Fund.

Notification of alteration of premises

26. (1) An operator of a registered business who intends to carry out work for any addition or alteration valued more than $5,000 to the premises where the business is conducted and which is likely to affect-

- (a) any service provided to tourists; or
- (b) the Tourism Permit or grading of the accommodation establishment or tourist enterprise or restaurant as the case may be; must notify the CEO in writing thereof, at least 30 days before commencing the work, and provide the Board with such plans, documents or other information in relation to the addition or alteration as may be prescribed or as the Board may require, and pay the prescribed fee to the Board;
- (c) must also comply with any other laws that require permit to be sought before addition or alteration of any premises.

(3) Within 30 days after completion of the work carried out, or such longer period as the Board may allow, the operator of the registered business must notify the Board of the completion.

(4) The Board may cause an inspection to be carried out and a report to be prepared by a Tourism Assessment Officer on whether the prescribed requirements for registration are still being complied with in respect of the registered business after completion of the work in question.

PART VI - REGISTRATION CERTIFICATES AND LICENCES

Issue of registration certificate or registration disk

27. (1) If the Board grants an application for registration or renewal of a registration, it may, upon payment of the prescribed registration issue fee or the renewal issue fee, as the case may be, issue to the operator of the accommodation establishment or tourist enterprise, a registration certificate or registration disk for land and marine transport used by either the accommodation establishment or tourism enterprise.

(2) A registration certificate or registration disk must be in the approved form and must contain -

- (a) the name of the operator, as the case may be;

- (d) any other particulars as may be prescribed.

Duration of validity of registration

28. (1) A registration certificate is valid for the period as prescribed.

(2) In the event of the transfer by way of lease, sale or otherwise of an accommodation establishment or tourist enterprise, the registration issued in respect of the accommodation establishment or tourist enterprise, terminates on the date of the transfer.

Display of registration certificate

29. A registration certificate issued under this Act must –

- (a) be displayed conspicuously at a prominent place where the business or activity authorised by the registration certificate is conducted or carried on; or
- (b) if the business or activity authorised by the registration certificate is not conducted or carried on upon or from fixed premises, the certificate must be produced for inspection on request by a tourism inspector.

Display of Registration disk and other information

30. (1) Any registration disk issued by the Board in respect of any passenger vehicle or marine transport used for or in connection with any activity or service provided by the operator of a registered business for the conveyance of clients must be displayed by affixing it, in an upright position, to the inside of the windscreen of the vehicle or at any other place in or on the vehicle or marine transport in a way that the registration disk is reasonably protected from the elements and the print on the face of the disk is clearly visible from outside the vehicle or marine transport.

(2) A person must not operate a vehicle or marine transport for a purpose mentioned in subsection (1) –

(a) unless the registration disk issued by the Board in respect of that vehicle or marine transport is displayed in accordance with that subsection; or

(b) if the registration disk -
(i) is obscure or illegible; or

(ii) has ceased to be valid for any reason as prescribed.

(3) Every vehicle used in Kiribati for the conveyance of clients in or in connection with the conduct of business or the carrying on of any activity authorised by a registration certificate under this Act must bear clear permanent identification of the business of the operator on both sides of the body of the vehicle.

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (2) or (3) commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding $3000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both

Replacement of registration certificate or disk

31. (1) The operator of a registered business may apply to the Board for the replacement of a damaged, destroyed, lost or stolen registration certificate or registration disk.

(2) An application for replacement must -

(a) be made in the approved form; and

(b) be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(3) The TAK must grant the application if the Board is satisfied the certificate or registration disk has been damaged in a way that requires its replacement or has been destroyed, lost or stolen.

(4) If the TAK grants the application it must issue another registration certificate or registration disk to the applicant to replace the damaged, destroyed, lost or stolen certificate or disk.

(5) If the Board refuses to grant the application, it must give the operator notice of the decision and the reasons for the decision within 14 days after the decision is made.

(6) If a lost registration certificate or registration disk that has been replaced is found the operator must forthwith return that certificate, licence or disk to the Board.

(7) A person who knowingly retains, or has in his or her possession, a certificate or disk which has been replaced commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding $500 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or to both.

Forged certificate or disk

32. A person who -

- (a) forges any registration certificate or registration disk or any other document or thing issued by the Board; or
- (b) displays or is in possession of any forged registration certificate, registration disk or any other document or thing knowing it to be false, commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding $5000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both.

Application for renewal of registration

33. (1) An application for the renewal of a registration must be made to the TAK at least 90 days before the registration, grading or licence expires.

(2) An application for renewal must –

- (a) be submitted to the Chairperson in the approved form;
- (b) be accompanied by the documents and information as prescribed; and
- (c) be accompanied by the prescribed renewal fee.

(3) The TAK may, by notice in writing given to the applicant, require the applicant to give the Board further information or documents relevant to the application within a stated reasonable period of at least 14 days.

Register to be kept and open for inspection

34. (1) The Board must cause a register to be kept in respect of registration certificates issued under this Act.

(2) The register must –

- (a) be kept in the form and in a way the Board determines, including electronic form;
- (b) contain the details as prescribed or as the Board determines.

(3) The register must be open for inspection at the office of the TAK.

(4) The TAK and its staff must permit members of the public to inspect the register free of charge during normal office hours.

Cancellation of registration or licence

35. (1) Subject to section 34, the Board may cancel a registration if –

- (a) the Board, upon receipt of an inspection report by a tourism inspector, considers that the prescribed requirements for granting registration are no longer complied with in respect of the accommodation establishment or tourist enterprise or regulated activity in question;
- (b) information given in connection with the application for the grant of the registration was, at the time the information was given, false in a material particular;
- (c) the operator of the registered business –
 - (i) without lawful excuse, has contravened a provision of this Act or a condition of the registration or a code of conduct applicable to the operator;
 - (ii) has failed to pay any fees or levies payable to the Board under this Act within 30 days after it became due; and
- (d) is convicted of an offence under this Act or any other offence involving fraud or dishonesty.

(2) The Board must cancel the registration of a registered business if the operator of the business surrenders the registration by written notice given to the Board.

(3) A person who uses the registration certificate or licence which has been cancelled or suspended or its renewal is refused under this Act commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding $1000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or both.

Procedure for cancellation of registration

36. (1) The Board must not cancel a registration under section 35 (1) unless the Board has given written notice to the operator of the business concerned –

- (a) stating that the Board proposes to cancel the registration;
- (b) specifying the reasons for the cancellation; and
- (c) inviting the operator to submit to the Board, within 30 days after the operator receives the notice, reasons why the Board should not cancel the registration.

(2) If the Board, after expiry of the period allowed for the submission of reasons, and having considered any submissions made, continues to hold the opinion that the registration should be cancelled, the Board may, by written notice to the operator, cancel the registration.

Notice of cancellation of a registration must specify –

- (a) the reasons for the cancellation;

- (b) the procedures for appeal under section 44.

Suspension of registration

37. (1) If the Board considers that cancellation of a registration is not appropriate, it may, by written notice given to the operator, suspend the registration for a period it may determine.

(2) Notice of suspension given under subsection (1) must –

- (a) state any corrective measures the Board requires to be taken by the operator in connection with the registered business before reinstatement of the registration will be considered by the Board;
- (b) specify a reasonable period within which the Board requires the corrective measures to be completed.

(3) If the Board is satisfied that the operator –

- (a) has duly complied with the requirements of the notice given under subsection (2), the Board must reinstate the registration without payment of any fee; or
- (b) has not complied with the direction, the Board may, by written notice to the operator, cancel the registration.

(4) While the suspension of a registration is in force the business to which the registration certificate relates is deemed not to be registered under this Act.

PART VII - GRADING AND OTHER STANDARD AND QUALITY ASSURANCE SCHEMES

Establishing grading and classification scheme for accommodation establishments

38. (1) The TAK, with a view to the maintenance or enhancement of the standards and quality of facilities and services provided or rendered by operators of accommodation establishments, may –

- (a) establish a grading and classification scheme in respect of accommodation establishments for participation by operators of accommodation establishments on a basis of voluntary membership; and
- (b) from time to time amend the provisions of the scheme.

(2) A scheme under subsection (1) may include provisions for –

- (a) the classification of accommodation establishments into different classes;
- (b) the requirements and conditions for the acquisition and continuation of membership of the scheme, including the payment of fees, and the suspension or termination of membership;

- (c) the intervals at which application for renewal of a grading must be made and the procedures for and fees payable for an application for renewal; and
- (d) differentiation between accommodation establishments or classes of accommodation establishment on any basis the Board considers fit, including the nature, extent, availability and quality of facilities provided or services rendered.

Application for grading of accommodation establishment

39. (1) The operator of an accommodation establishment registered under this Act, being of a class for which grading requirements are prescribed under a scheme, may apply to the Board for the grading of the accommodation establishment.

(2) An application for grading follow the same process in section 33(2) (a) to (c)

(3) The TAK, with due regard to the requirements prescribed under the scheme, and after consideration of an inspection report given by a tourism inspector in respect of the premises, must –

- (a) grant the application, and allocate the appropriate grading in respect of the accommodation establishment; or
- (b) refuse to grant the application.

(4) If the TAK refuses to grant an application for grading, the TAK must give the applicant written notice of its decision and the reasons for the decision within 14 days after the decision is made.

(5) The operator of an accommodation establishment graded under a scheme must be issued, upon payment of the prescribed fee, with a certificate of grading in accordance with the grading allocated by the Board of TAK.

(6) While being a member under a scheme, the operator of the accommodation establishment must use and display the prescribed certificate in respect of the establishment in the prescribed manner.

(7) A certificate referred to in subsection (6) must include a depiction of a star or a number of stars which indicate the grading awarded in respect of the accommodation establishment concerned under scheme.

Regrading of accommodation establishment

40. (1) The operator of an accommodation establishment graded under a scheme may apply to the Board for the allocation of a higher grading.

(2) An application for regrading to a higher grade follow the same requirements stated in section 33(2).

(3) If the operator of an accommodation establishment graded under a scheme shall be notified by the TAK in writing –

- (a) to remove the grading allocated in respect of the accommodation establishment, the TAK must give effect to that notification;
- (b) to regrade the accommodation establishment to a lower grade indicated in the notification, the TAK must regrade the accommodation establishment to the lower grade as indicated if the Board is satisfied that the requirements prescribed under the scheme for the lower grade are complied with in respect of the accommodation establishment.

(4) If an accommodation establishment no longer complies with the requirements prescribed under a scheme for the grading allocated in respect of it, the Board, after having given the operator of the accommodation establishment reasonable opportunity of making representations in the matter, may –

- (a) re-grade the accommodation establishment to a lower grade; or
- (b) revoke the grading allocated in respect of it.

(5) Upon the regrading of an accommodation establishment under this section, the TAK must, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, issue in respect of the accommodation establishment the appropriate certificate of grading and certificate in accordance with the re-grading.

Establishment of other standards and quality assurance schemes for prescribed sectors of tourism industry

41. (1) The TAK, with a view to the maintenance or enhancement of standards and quality of services provided or rendered by persons engaged in any specified sector of the tourism industry, other than accommodation establishments, may establish any standards and quality assurance scheme for participation by such persons in respect of their businesses on a basis of voluntary membership.

(2) A scheme established under subsection (1) may include provisions for -

- (a) the classification of businesses falling within the relevant sector of the tourism industry to which the scheme relates into different classes;
- (b) the requirements and conditions for the acquisition and continuation of membership of the scheme and the suspension or termination of membership;
- (c) the intervals at which application for renewal of a rating under the scheme must be made and the procedures for and fees payable for an application for renewal; and

- (d) differentiation between business or classes of businesses falling within the relevant sector of the tourism industry on any basis the Board considers fit, including the nature, extent, availability and quality of facilities provided or services rendered.

Application for renewal of grading

42. (1) An application for the renewal of grading must be made to the Board at least 90 days before the grading expires.

(2) An application for renewal follows the same steps provided in section 33(2).

(3) The Board may, by notice in writing given to the applicant, require the applicant to give the Board further information or documents relevant to the application within a stated reasonable period of at least 14 days.

Decision on application for Tourism Permit, registration, renewal of registration and grading

43. (1) The Board, upon considering an application for a Tourism Permit, registration, renewal of registration and renewal of a grading, must –

- (a) grant the application; or
- (b) refuse to grant the application.

(2) If the Board refuses to grant the application for such applications, it must –

- (a) give the applicant written notice of its decision and the reasons for the decision within 14 days after the decision is made; and
- (b) refund the renewal fee paid by the applicant, if any.

Appeals

44. (1) A person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Board with respect to-

- (a) a refusal to grant an application for the issue or renewal of a registration, grading;
- (b) a condition attached to a registration or grading;
- (c) the suspension or cancellation of a registration, or the suspension or cancellation of a grading, or a regrading to a lower grade; or
- (d) a determination made on review of a decision of a board, either in relation to the its finding or the sanction imposed by it, may appeal against that decision to the Minister for determination.

(2) Within 14 days after the appeal has been lodged the Chairperson must notify the Minister in writing thereof.

(3) Within 60 days of being notified of the appeal, the Minister must appoint the appeal tribunal, which must consist of a chairperson, being a legal practitioner with at least 5 years standing, and one or more persons with expert knowledge or experience in the field of the tourism industry relevant to the subject matter of the appeal.

(4) The appeal tribunal may make any order it thinks fit, confirming, varying or setting aside the decision appealed against or referring the matter back for reconsideration by the Board in accordance with directions given by the appeal tribunal.

(5) If the appeal tribunal make an order-

(a) setting aside the decision or action appealed against, the prescribed fee paid for the appeal must be refunded to the appellant; or

(b) varying the decision or action appealed against, such portion of that prescribed fee as the appeal board determines must be refunded to the appellant.

Special power of audit of accounting records relating to the Kiribati Tourism Marketing and Development Fund

45. (1) Without prejudice to the powers conferred on a tourism inspector by section 22, a tourism inspector may in particular, for the purposes of ensuring that the requirements of this Act with respect to the payment, collection or remittance of the Kiribati Marketing and Development Fund Levy are being complied, at any reasonable time inspect, audit or examine –

(a) the records of an operator of a registered business which that person is required by or under this Act to keep for accounting for and making returns in relation to the payment, collection or remittance of the KTMDF Levy under this Act;

(b) any document of that operator, or of any other person, that relates or may relate -

(i) to the information that is or should be in the records required to be kept by the operator; or

(ii) to any amount payable under this Act by or to operator.

(2) For the purpose of an inspection, audit or examination under subsection (1) a tourism inspector may require from the operator of the registered business concerned to produce all records or documents that are or may be relevant to the inspection, audit or examination.

PART VIII - MISCELLANEOUS

Exemption from taxation

46. The income, property and transactions of the TAK shall not be subject to any tax, rate, charge or impost under any other law.

Legal proceedings.

47. The TAK may sue and be sued in its corporate name, provided that it shall be subject to suit only in the manner provided for suits against the Government of Kiribati; and provided further that any liability incurred by the TAK shall not be a liability of the Government or any subdivision thereof. The Chairperson or the Chief Executive Officer, or their designees, may accept service of process on behalf of the TAK. The Attorney General or appointed attorneys shall represent the TAK in legal proceedings to the extent that such representation does not represent an actual or potential conflict of interest.

Secrecy

48. (1) A member or a tourism inspector or any other person who, in the performance of his or her functions under this Act, acquires any information in relation to the business or affairs of any accommodation establishment or any tourist enterprise or any persons who applied for a licence in terms of this Act must not disclose such information to any person, except;

(a) for the purpose of the performance of his or her functions under this Act; or

(b) when required to do so by any court of law or under any law.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding $5000 and 2 years imprisonment or both.

Rules and regulations.

49. The Minister may make rules and regulations deemed necessary for the better carrying into effect of this Act.

TOURISM ACT 2018

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

The Tourism Act 2018 is a new and comprehensive piece of legislation that provides for the legal framework for the development of the Tourism Industry in the Republic of Kiribati for present and future generations. The Act consists of eight (8) Parts beginning with Part I under the heading Preliminary that contains short title of the Act, commencement date and definition section. Part II provides for the establishment of the Kiribati Tourism Authority, Part III establishes the Kiribati Tourism Marketing and Development Fund, Part IV deals with Tourism Inspectors, Part V deals with Tourism Permit, Part VI deals with Registration Certificates and Licences and Part VII deals with Grading and other standard and quality assurance schemes and Part VIII provides for Miscellaneous.

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Part I of the Act provides for Preliminary that contains (a) short title in section 1, (b) the commencement date in section 2 and the Interpretation section in section 3 that provides for the definition of terms utilized in the Act.

PART II

TOURISM AUTHORITY (TAK)

Part II of the Act provides for the establishment of the Tourism Authority of Kiribati in section 4. As a recognized legal entity TAK can own properties and can sue and be sued in its' corporate name and has the powers, functions, duties and responsibilities of a corporation. Section 5 provides for its' incorporation, the composition of its' Board of Directors, office holders, rules and procedures chief executive officer and staff are stated in section 6 to 9. And finally the objectives of the TAK and its' powers are stipulated in section 10 to 11.

PART III

KIRIBATI TOURISM MARKETING AND DEVELOPMENT FUND

Section 12 establishes the Kiribati Tourism Marketing Development Fund (KT MDF) which will be the main financing facility of the TAK. Government and donor funds, loans, grants, levies and any other money payable under Law shall be deposited into the KT MDF.

Section 13 establishes the Kiribati Tourism Marketing Development Fund Levy imposed by the TAK Board for the benefit of the KTDMF. This levy is to be passed on to the tourist in the final product or service pricing and remitted to the KTDMF. Failure to collect this levy by the tourism operator will result in the operator having to pay this levy themselves.

The succeeding sections explain further on how the Levy will be dealt with, in that, it is a debt due to TAK section 14, offences relating to Levy is provided in section 15, and the Purpose and Administration of the Fund is explained in section 16. The rest of the sections in that, from section 17 to section 20 provides for an organized accounting system for the levy, in that Accounts and Records, Annual Report, Register of Clients and Return of Payments. Finally section 21 provides for power of administration and management of Levy.

PART IV

TOURISM INSPECTORS

This part consists of only two sections section 22 and 23. Section 22 provides for the "Appointment of Tourism Inspectors." The Board of TAK must appoint a TAK employee or may contract any individual person(s) who sees fit to carry out the role/tasks of tourism inspector(s). In addition, section 23 provides for the "Powers of Tourism Inspectors," when conducting authorized inspections and investigations that must be consistent with the criminal procedure code as evident in the need to apply for a search warrant to authorize entry and inspection of a private home.

PART V

TOURISM PERMIT

This part explains the requirements of a Tourism Permit, an accommodation establishment and a tourist enterprise operator must apply for or comply with under section 24, including the specific penalty for any person operating a tourism business without obtaining Tourism Permit prior establishment under this Act.

An application for a Tourism permit is stated under section 25 and a conditional Tourism permit is explained in section 26, while notification of alteration of premises is provided in section 27.

PART VI

REGISTRATION CERTIFICATE AND LICENCE

This part illustrates that an application for registration of certificate and licenses by any accommodation establishment, tourist enterprises in relation to land and marine transport to be utilized by such accommodation establishment and tourist enterprises, cannot be granted or renewed unless prescribed fees are being paid.

Upon approval, the registration disk must contain the name of the operator, the date in which the registration or renewal starts, conditions of the registration and other particulars where needed. Section 28 to 32 provides for issuance of such certificate and licences, the duration of its validity, how the certificate and Board's disk are to be displayed on a vehicle and their replacement if they are lost. Section 33 deals with forgery of certificate and disk, while section 34 explains an application for a renewal of registration. Section 35 establishes a register of certificates and licences to be kept and open for inspection. The remaining sections, section 36 to 38 deals with cancellation of registration of certificate and the procedure for cancellation and finally the suspension of registration.

PART VII

GRADING AND OTHER STANDARD AND QUALITY ASSURANCE SCHEMES

This part deals with section 39 to 46. The sections set out the establishment of the grading and classification standards by the TAK to be adhered to by the accommodation establishments and the tour enterprises.

Section 39 establishes such grading and classification scheme. An application for grading accommodation establishment and regrading of such accommodation establishment are stated in section 40 to 41, while section 42 provides for establishment of other standards and quality assurance schemes for prescribed sectors of tourism industry. Section 43 provides for any operator of such accommodation establishment and tour enterprises to apply for a renewal of grading and section 44 provides for the decision of the board on such application for Tourism Permit, registration and renewal of registration and grading. Section 45 provides an avenue for any person aggrieved of such decision of the board to appeal to the Minister and finally section 46 provides for special power of audit of accounting records, relating to the Kiribati Tourism Marketing and Development Fund.

PART VIII

MISCELLANEOUS

This part consists of four (4) headings namely, (a) Exemption from taxation (b) Legal proceedings (c) Secrecy or confidentiality and finally rules and regulations.

Section 47 exempts TAK's income, property and transactions received from taxation, rate charge or any customs under any other law. Section 48, explains TAK as a legal entity that can own property can sue and be sued. That such suit must be pursued in the manner provided for suits against the Republic and any liability of TAK arising from such suits shall not be liability of the Republic or its subdivision. Furthermore, this part also explains how the Attorney General may act on behalf of TAK if a conflict of interest arises. Section 49 prohibits a member or tourism inspector or any other person from disclosing information he or she acquire while performing his or her duty under the Act, unless such disclosure is authorized under the Act only. Finally section 50 provides for the Ministers power to make rules and regulations for the better carrying into effect of this Act.
